A Cordial Invitation

The Missouri Shorthorn Breeders' Association is determined to prove to all breeders of cattle and farmers that Shorthorn cattle are superior to other breeds. Anyone can check the results made by Government experimental stations, breeders or farmers who have made any kind of a comparison and these results will convince you that you cannot afford not to raise or use Shorthorn cattle. More money is received for the feed you give to Shorthorn cattle than any other beef breed. They have nicer dispositions which spells less danger to handle and because they are quieter they retain their weight per age.

This sale is a series of three Spring sales held this year and we only ask that you investigate and be our guest on April 22d. If you are a new breeder you will be able to start with a breed that promises to be a leader in the field of beef-improving cattle and in the post war period when the demand comes you cannot only help to supply the demand, but receive a very generous dividend each year on your investment. If you are already a Shorthorn breeder you can improve your position by coming to our sale and purchase animals at this sale that will be a valuable addition to your herd.

We welcome you and I hope that you can be at our annual Shorthorn dinner to be held the night previous to our sale, Friday, April 21, at the Baptist church at Kahoka, Missouri. We guarantee a rousing welcome and we hope you will come.

She should have a calf by sale day by Ed-Ru Command.

ED-RU COMMAND
owned by Leslie Young

I am "Lord and Master" of the entire herd at Ed-Ru Farm. I carry myself with a majestic air. I am one of the shortest-legged, lowest-flanked, best rumped and loined bulls of my breed. Just look at my mellow covering. My boss just got me up out of the cow herd, where I spend all my daylight hours. It rather peeved me until he told me what we were going to do. Then I told him I'd look as good as I could under the circumstances. What do you think of me? Come sale day and see me and my good sons and daughters.
